

FALL '09 SEMESTER

EARN A CHILD DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE (CDA) A CHILD DEVELOPMENT CERTIFICATE
AND 31 CREDITS TOWARD AN ASSOCIATES DEGREE

Through a grant from the Early Childhood Collaborative and other funders, and in collaboration with Northern Virginia Community College (NOVA), Hopkins House now offers college classes, child care, and career guidance to individuals interested in a career in Early Childhood Education.

Open to the public, program participants can earn a CDA credential and up to 31 college credits (out of 67 needed for an AA degree) in two years. Upon successful completion of the program, participants are guaranteed a salary of $25,000 or more, plus benefits, if employed by a local, participating childcare center in the City of Alexandria or Fairfax County.
