

Are you a Military Spouse in search of a meaningful career opportunity?

Have you considered a career in Early Childhood Education? Preschools across the nation have immediate openings for skilled early childhood educators. In partnership with Northern Virginia Community College, the Hopkins House Early Childhood Education Institute offers spouses of military personnel college credits and professional certifications leading to a degree and career in early care and education - for just $100 a semester!

Enrolling Now for Winter 2019
Semester!

For information:
visit www.hopkinshouse.org

Hopkins House is a nonprofit organization serving children, youth and their families since 1939.